TO POP OR NOT TO POP.
To pop or not to pop, that is the question: Whether 'tis easier for a man to suffer in silence, or to be the ruler of his fate, or ask some pretty girl to share his troubles, and by proposing end them? To woo, to wed, no more, and by a form to say he's free. From all the little ills a bachelor, poor man, is plagued with—'tis a consummation devoutly to be wished. To woo, to wed—Perhaps a family—Ah, there's the rub! For in the marriage state what cares may come When he has taken to himself a wife: Must give him pause—there's the respect That makes chivalry of so long a life; For who would bear the washerwoman's crimes, The buttonless shirt, the stockings full of holes, The pangs of collars with a saw-like edge; The lodging keeper's sins, the cat's misdeeds, The strange evaporation of his brandy When he himself might his quietus make With a plain gold ring—Who would chambers keep And growl and fret a solitary life But that the dread of endless tradesman's bills The housekeeping expenses (from whose door no benefit escapes) puzzles the will And makes him rather bear the ills he has Than fly to others that perhaps are worse. Thus prudence makes a coward of a man, And thus we see most desperate flirtations, In the account too often end in smoke, And promises apparently of granite, Are broken like the crust of a pie pie And ladies bring an "action"

Miss Tote McMurtry entertained a few intimate friends on Friday evening of last week, in honor of her cousin, Mr. McMurtry, of California.

Local and Personal.
The many friends of Prof and Mrs. E. W. Hunt were shocked to hear Tuesday of the death of that estimable lady. She had been ailing but a short time. The remains were taken to Clarence, N. Y., for interment.

Miss Maud Burr's Party.
A most elegant party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Burr in honor of their daughter's guest, Miss Woods.
The invitations were very pretty and showed excellent taste as was in accordance with the entire affair. The elegant parlors were thrown together furnishing a most perfect place to dance. The program was painted on white satin and was very pretty, comprising fourteen dances.
Miss Woods is a very pretty young lady and has many attractions. She was dressed in white silk with pink and white roses.
Miss Burr was dressed in a very becoming cream abtastros cloth, and gave every attention to her guests who enjoyed a delightful time.
The refreshments were very nice and were served up stairs on small tables.
Those present were: Messrs. Frank Burr, Charlie Burr, Charlie Clarke, Will Clarke, Barnes, of York, Andrews, Edwards, Funke, Hammond, Hathaway, Higgenbotham, Holmes Houts, Lansing, Low, Maxwell, Muir, McArthur, McBride, McKennin, Nissley, Northam, Storrs, Scott, Stout, Smith, Waite, West, Weckbach and Young. T., Routt of Tipton, Iowa, Barnes of York, Neb., and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Burr.
Music by Miss Willoughby.

The Grand Rally.
Thursday was a big day for republicans of eastern Nebraska, hundreds of them coming into the city to help yell for Harrison and Morton. Delegations were present from Sewaril, Ashland, Wahoo, DeWitt, Fairbury, Omaha and other points.
The evening parade was the largest ever seen in the city, over 1,000 men in line, with torches, hoop-poles, and other campaign insignia. Many prominent speakers were present, and addressed the crowd from temporary stands in government square, which was literally packed with human beings. It was a great event, and emphatically stamps Nebraska as a republican state.
Closing German.
Wednesday evening being the closing lesson of Miss Hawkins' evening class, the evening was spent in dancing the German; the favors were very beautiful consisting of little thermometers, gold tooth-picks, match safes, satchel bags, bon-bon boxes, etc. Those who took part were:
Messrs. McConiga, Lowe, Holmes, Trester, Cope, Brown, Henkle, West, Mawe, Ferris, J. Stout; Misses H. Leland, Nellie Graham, Birch, Carrie Leland, Thell, Brown, J. Leland, Woods, Mawe, Ferris, C. Brown. Mr. Morrow and Miss Hawkins led the German.

Trimming Velvets.
See the fancy velvets and plushes in Ashby & Millsbaugh's west window, which are to be placed on sale Monday morning at 8 o'clock at fifty cents per yard. The regular prices on these goods were $2, $3, $4, and $5 a yard. Fifty cents is a ridiculous price to put on them but we propose to close them quickly if you do not wish to make them up just now, they are a grand investment to hold until fall when you will pay four times the price.
ASHBY & MILLSBAUGH.
Fourth of July.
Attention of our readers is called to the excellent story suitable to Independence day, which may be found on our inside pages. It is by a prominent author, elegantly illustrated and you want to read it.

Mr. Harry Bartruff, who has been spending the winter in Omaha, arrived in the city Saturday, and has taken his old position with the Peerless Laundry.
Hon. N. R. Persinger, father of the gentleman who so ably presides over the social columns of the Des Moines Mail and Times, was in the city this week.
Mr. Dave Baum left for Omaha a few days since, to take charge of the business in that city. Mr. Baum being one of our first young men, we are sorry to lose him.
Prof. F. M. Gibault has gone east, but will return and resume his musical classes about September first. After that date he may be addressed at his rooms in Ledwith block.
The concert by the K. P. band, Saturday, and the military band Wednesday evening, were enjoyable affairs. Lincoln has no reason to be ashamed of their magnificent playing.
The annual meeting of the State Medical Society was held in the city this week. Many interesting papers were read, and the sessions were of particular interest to our "medics."
Barnum & Bailey's Monster show will exhibit in Lincoln on September 30th. The show is bigger and better than ever, and will draw one of the largest crowds ever in the city. Wait for Barnum.
The funeral of Mr. Edward Fitzgerald, who died in Denver recently, was held from St. Teresa's church Monday morning, and was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives.
A very gay crowd of eight couples visited Cushman via carriages on Monday evening last. They spent the time in dancing and wasting pop. A whole box was popped but they all declare they had none. I wonder if they know?
Do you want something to combine with goods you now have and make a handsome dress? If so see the fancy velvets Ashby & Millsbaugh place on sale Monday morning July 2nd at fifty cents a yard; former price $2 to $5 per yard.
Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Baldwin and son Matson, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Hurlbut and son Guy leave next week for the east. They propose stopping a few days in Chicago, Niagara and New York on the way, and will spend the heated term at Saratoga Springs.
Rev. W. G. Hawkins will deliver a lecture tomorrow morning at the Church of the Holy Comforter, corner of Twelfth and V streets on "Lambeth Palace and its Associations." Mr. Hawkins is thoroughly conversant with his subject, and his talk will be very entertaining. Services in evening also.
Mrs. E. S. Dudley was the victim of a surprise party Wednesday evening at the residence of Mrs. J. A. Marshall, Fifteenth and M streets. After the ladies had gathered, Mrs. Dudley was invited in when Mrs. James Tyler presented her with a handsome diamond ring and a beautiful church service. Mrs. Dudley was for the moment overcome by this sudden yet warm expression of the esteem in which she is held, but heartily thanked them one and all for their kindness.
